

DermTech's Commitment to Human Rights

November 1, 2023

Overview

In the workplace and in the marketplace, integrity and fairness are central to our values. We are committed to respecting human rights and to treating every person with dignity and respect and we expect our business partners to do the same.

DermTech's approach to human rights is based on internationally recognized standards. Recognizing that only Governments have the authority to become a party to and be bound by international agreements, DermTech additionally respects the fundamental principles contained in the International Bill of Rights (i.e., United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights), the International Labor Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, and the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights. DermTech is committed to integrating these principles into our strategy, our culture, our operations, and our relationships with business partners.

Key Commitments

Ethical Business Conduct:

- The DermTech Code of Conduct outlines our dedication to human rights and the framework for our commitment to legal and ethical conduct.
- DermTech expects our business partners to act in accordance with internationally recognized human rights standards and best practices, including the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and the International Labor Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.
- We implement contractual and procedural safeguards to monitor compliance with our expectations for ethical business conduct and will never knowingly work with business partners who violate these standards.
